

CHAPTER 16 ELECTRICAL INTERFERENCE

3-16-1 ELECTRICAL INTERFERENCE

3-16-2 AMATEUR BROADCASTING

3-16-1 ELECTRICAL INTERFERENCE. It shall be unlawful to operate any electrical or other wire, device, apparatus, instrument, machine or thing that causes reasonably preventable electrical interference with any other electrical apparatus, until such interference is removed either by improving the apparatus or by replacing it with other apparatus that will not cause interference.

3-16-2 AMATEUR BROADCASTING. It shall be unlawful for amateur radio broadcasters to broadcast on any wavelength other than that assigned them by the National Radio Commission.
